MONTANA CHAPTER OF THE AMERICAN ASSOCIATION OF UNIVERSITY PROFESSORS
ELECTS 1971-72 OFFICERS

MISSOULA--

The University of Montana Chapter of the American Association of University Professors recently elected a new slate of officers for 1971-72.

New officers include Fred A. Henningsen, a UM professor of business administration, president; Wilford Lundberg, an assistant professor of law, vice-president; J. Ray Lanfear, an assistant professor of philosophy, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Lois M. Welch, an assistant professor of English, delegate-^{at-}large, and Bruce W. Barton, professor and chairman of art, chairman of the faculty-administration relations committee. Dr. John E. Van de Wetering, chairman and professor of history, is former AAUP president on campus.

During the recent AAUP election meeting UM President Robert T. Pantzer spoke to the chapter on "Austerity, A Budgetary Outlook."

The American Association of University Professors is a national organization concerned with the rights and privileges of professors as well as professional ethics, Lanfear said.
